

4/6 Monaro Street Merimbula NSW

2 1 1

Beyond the captivating façade retaining all its heritage character, this double-story townhouse with its own street frontage and low owners' corporation fees provides an oasis of quality and flexibility - all in a prime location, moments from the buzz of the famous Market Street, Merimbula.

A wonderfully unique property, "completely renovated" the home's light-filled interior comprises a lower-level open-plan living/dining area, further enhanced by the original kitchen, laundry, and separate toilet. On the upper level is the main bedroom with beautiful vintage timber built-in robes, and a double set of french glass doors leading out onto a north-facing balcony, truly romantic overlooking the city, this space is also large enough to host an incorporated home office.
